The front page news on TV every night? Ours.

Learn more: newsworks.org.uk/butterfly

For the last word in news coverage, television's presenters take a look at our headlines. Irrefutable evidence that even in this multi-media world, it is still tomorrow's newspapers that set the national agenda. It's a fact that's not lost on 18 to 24 year olds.

Most of them are turning to our titles, not the TV, for their news. They trust the articles that we carry and it's a trust that rubs off on the articles that we advertise. As readers, they couldn't be better informed. As an advertiser you couldn't be better placed to inform them.

Nothing works like news works.

Research reveals that people are more absorbed and attentive when they read newspaper content.

Learn more: newsworks.org.uk/butterfly

The Labour leadership saga? The chaos outside Calais? The latest gossip from Tinseltown? No matter how our news brands capture a reader's attention, they are remarkably successful at keeping it. An NRS survey had them spending 45 minutes with us on their smart phones and tablets. They are more relaxed than TV viewers and radio listeners and less likely to be multi-screening. In fact, the 36 million who pick up a paper spend over an hour reading and don't multi-screen at all. Research also confirmed that this deeper involvement coincides with deeper pockets. News brands reach 98% of those earning over £70k and they spend rather more than the average amount of it online and in the shops. When they can tear themselves away from that editorial of ours.

Nothing works like news works.
